ABRAMOWICZ AND BRAGADO TOP FIELD AT LAKEHURST!

Steve Abramowicz and Tino Bragado hooked up to post a 901 handicap total to capture the $1,200 first prize in our first doubles tournament at Brunswick Lakehurst Bowl. Their winning effort came on the 2pm squad on Sunday afternoon and topped a field of 274 teams. Steve and Tino didn't find each other until right before squad time but boy are they glad that they did!

Steve Abramowicz is a 36 year old Production Manager for Transkrit Corp. He is single and has been bowling for about 20 years. He currently bowls at Mont Clare Lanes and has a 279 single with a 746 series to his credit. Steve was rolling a Columbia Bud II and a Red Pearl Hammer which were drilled at Specialized Pro Shop. This was Steve's second title as he had previously won a singles championship on May 3 at Poplar Creek Bowl.

Tino Bragado is 33 years old and is employed as a Senior Pilot Plant Technician for Abbott Labs. He is married to Bella and has 2 children, Myra and Justin. Tino has been bowling for about 13 years and currently bowls at Brunswick Lakehurst Bowl. He has a high game of 268 and a 636 series as his personal bests. He was using an AMF Sumo which he had drilled at Kennedy Pro Shop. This was Tino's first ABT title.

Both bowlers thanked each other, the ABT, and Lakehurst Bowl. Steve also thanked all the ABT members who bowl every week making the ABT such a great place to be on weekends. Tino also thanked his bowling buddies, Mel Apilado, Dave Sherlock, and Whip Ibanez and he had a special thanks to Cheryl Newman who gave him a Nu Skin Thumb Patch that really helped him to keep bowling after he had developed a thumb blister. Steve said that he had no immediate plans for his winnings and really enjoyed the doubles. Tino said part of his winnings would go to his kids while the rest would come in handy for the Las Vegas Nationals next week. Tino also said that the doubles were a lot of fun and he really enjoyed bowling with a lot of different partners.
